OFFICE NOTES:

Dear potential donor / sponsor,

The New Baltimore Farmers Market has seen continued growth in both our vendor participation and customer visits (shoppers). Since 2015 we have worked to partner with local businesses to sponsor special market days and events in order to provide more opportunity for community engagement. This also helps our "bottom line", since, for our market, the vendor stall income (earned income) generally only covers the costs for market management and basic operations. We are thrilled to be celebrating our 11th season this year, and hope you will support with a sponsorship.

While the board is 100% volunteer, our market employs a year round part time professional market manager, and a seasonal part time clerk for our Bridge Card Program (SNAP). Because we have made the commitment of professional staffing for sustainability and continued community service, and because much planning and work happens during the winter months, we must cover our administrative costs first and conserve as much of our earned income as possible. There is little left over for programming (events, entertainment, and education) and even less for future planning. Because of this, we look for financial support in the way of donations and grants for operating supplies, programs, overhead costs and capital planning. About 15-20% of our annual budget is allocated for Programs & Community and SNAP/DUFB Outreach.

The 2017 season saw attendance overall with an estimated 33,000 shoppers. 2018 planning is underway and the NBFM looks forward to opportunities to connect with sponsors and donors who believe sponsorship is great way to not only support the market, but also for their business or organization to gain some great exposure.

The New Baltimore Farmers Market (NBFM) is a public charity with tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code. Donations to the NBFM are tax-deductible retroactive to the founding of the organization on May 23, 2012. We hope you will consider our nonprofit community organization to be worthy of consideration for a sponsorship or donation. Please review the enclosed information, and contact me if you have additional questions.

Thank you for your consideration,

Cindy
